Welcome

What an honour to introduce you to our very special family estate. For hundreds of years it has offered a warm and friendly welcome to people from all over the world. Renewed and revitalised – we are thrilled to share it with you and introduce you to this hidden gem. Choose to stay in our award winning self-catering cottages centred around the Victorian Stables or the charming Gothic lodge or be looked after in our newest addition – The North Wing of the abbey itself. We ensure that every guest receives superb service and attention, making sure we exceed expectations and do credit to this wonderful place.

The Cottages

Combermere Abbey Estate is a historic gem with 1000 acres of majestic park and woodland with lovingly restored Victorian walled gardens aside a stunning mere. A privately owned estate with 900 years of history, the historic buildings and landscape which both inspire and captivate our guests. On the border of Cheshire and Shropshire between Nantwich and Whitchurch, visitors can easily explore the local heritage, market towns, events and activities in the area, and enjoy delicious locally produced food and drink in pubs and restaurants close by. Combermere Abbey Estate has ten beautifully appointed, award winning self-catering cottages. Converted from the 19th century Combermere stables these idyllic cottages range in size and style, each with an excellent attention to detail and comfort.

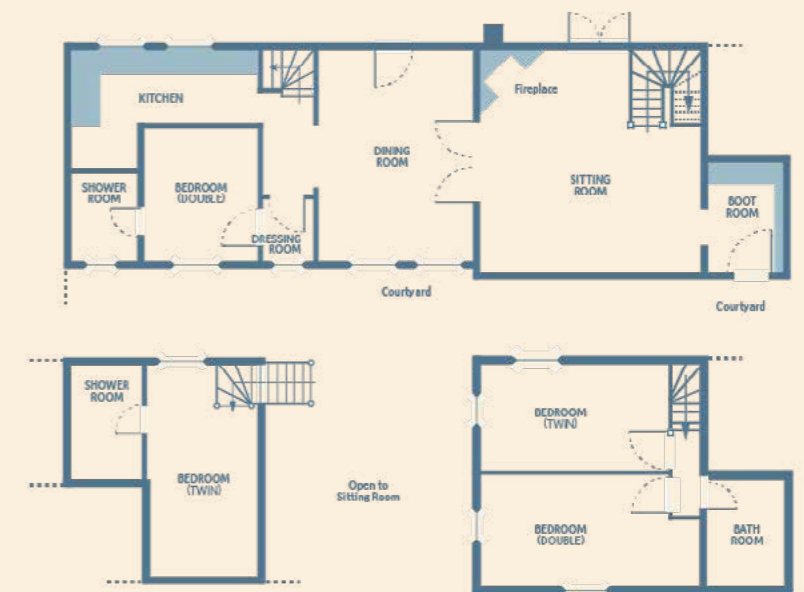

During their stay guests can enjoy a wonderful stroll through Combermere Abbey's ancient woodland and explore the Pleasure Garden and Garden Wood that leads you down to the mere with stunning views and wildlife. The perfect place to stay for families, groups of friends catching up and celebrating or individuals looking for a retreat to re-charge their batteries.
